

The view south from the northern end of Platform 1. 7802 is seen prior to working one of the railway's footplate experience trains. These allow participants to fire and drive a steam locomotive for real under supervision. The trains run separately to the railway's passenger service and are normally run from Bewdley. For more information please contact the railway using the contact information on the links page.

Photograph By N.Collins